2022/08/05 - 2022/08/05

Sender: China (710)

Target: United States (2)

Issue: Solve Territorial Dispute (5)

Final Outcome: Stalemate after Sanctions Imposition (9)

Summary:

On 2022/08/05, China sanctioned the US, as well as former US House of Representatives speaker Nancy Pelosi and her immediate family, in response to Pelosi's visit to Taiwan. The sanctions consisted of suspensions of protocols for the US, and unspecific sanctions for Pelosi and her immediate family.

Narrative:

On 2022/08/04, China imposed sanctions on the US and former US House of Representatives speaker Nancy Pelosi, along with her immediate family, for the purpose of solving the territorial dispute between China and Taiwan.¹² This was in response to Pelosi's visit to Taiwan on 2022/08/02, which signaled US support for Taiwan in the territorial dispute. Pelosi said the visit showed: "an unwavering American commitment to the Chinese-claimed self-ruled island".³

The initial onset of the episode began when China's Foreign Ministry Spokesperson said: "In response to Pelosi's egregious provocation, China decides to adopt sanctions on Pelosi and her immediate family members in accordance with relevant laws of the People's Republic of China" on 2022/08/05.⁴ The sanctions on Nancy Pelosi and her immediate family were unspecific in their contents.⁵ China's sanctions against the US were diplomatic: they canceled future phone calls and meetings between defense leaders of the US and China, and canceled annual naval meetings between the US and China. They additionally canceled cooperation between the US and China on the repatriation of illegal immigrants, anti-drug measures, and climate change
